2. Thanksgiving Celebration. On Sunday, Nov-23, as we celebrate God's goodness with grateful hearts. Come ready to praise, thank, and feast. Let's give thanks together for all that God has done. Pot-bless.
3. Coming soon: Bible fellowships beyond Sundays. While plans are still coming together, we encourage you to pray about how the Lord may lead you to take part and grow in His Word, prayer, and service.

PASTOR’S CORNER

Every first day of November is generally observed as a day of remembrance for departed loved ones and is commemorated in various traditional ways around the world. While this observance reminds us of the reality of death, it should not magnify death itself or suggest that the dead become powerful as spirits or ghosts. Instead, let us magnify Christ who conquered death and gives eternal life to all who believe in Him. As Jesus said, “Truly, truly, I say to you, he who hears My word, and believes Him who sent Me, has eternal life, and does not come into judgment, but has passed out of death into life.” — John 5:24 (NASB).
