PASTOR’S CORNER

Lately, some in our church family have been dealing with sickness. Illness brings discomfort, weakness, and unexpected disruptions to our plans, daily responsibilities, and worshipping-serving The LORD in Church. It is something none of us desire, yet in these difficult moments we are reminded of the sufficiency of God’s grace. Let us hold firmly to the words Jesus spoke to Paul: “My grace is sufficient for you, for My strength is made perfect in weakness.” And may we echo Paul’s response: “Therefore most gladly I will rather boast in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me.” (2 Corinthians 12:9, NKJV). May this truth strengthen our hearts and encourage us to rely on the grace and power of Christ in every season—especially in times of weakness.
