PASTOR’S CORNER

Light is perhaps one of the most common decorations used to portray Christmas. Yet, light is best appreciated when the surroundings are dark. May this remind us that Jesus Christ is the true Light—not a mere decoration we display during a season, but the Savior we receive and the Light we allow to shine in every part of our lives.

“Then Jesus spoke to them again, saying, ‘I am the light of the world. He who follows Me shall not walk in darkness, but have the light of life.’” – John 8:12

– Pastor Abe Bigornia
