PASTOR'S CORNER

A news report recently told of a cabinet secretary in Japan who arrived five minutes late to a cabinet meeting. She sincerely apologized not only to the Prime Minister and her fellow cabinet members, but also to the entire nation during a news conference. In Japan, being late for an appointment is considered a sign of disrespect. This reminds us of an important spiritual truth. How sincere are we in our appointments with God—in church and elsewhere? Do we come before Him with reverence and preparation? And when we fall short, do we humbly acknowledge it before the Lord? The Bible reminds us, "Guard your steps when you go to the house of God" (Ecclesiastes 5:1). – Pastor Abe Bigornia
