A GRACE-full WELCOME TO ALL

An illustration of an Easter scene. A large, grey, rolled-away stone lies on the ground in the foreground, next to the entrance of a tomb. The background shows rolling hills under a bright, hazy sky with soft clouds. The text "Jesus Is Risen!" is overlaid on the scene in a large, dark, serif font.

PASTOR'S CORNER

Today we remember and celebrate the death of Jesus Christ on the cross, His burial, and His resurrection on the third day. May this not remain merely history marked by a holiday, but become His story that we live and proclaim every day. “Now I make known to you, brethren, the gospel which I preached to you, which also you received, in which you stand, by which also you are saved, if you hold fast the word which I preached to you—unless you believed in vain. For I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received: that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, that He was buried, and that He was raised on the third day according to the Scriptures.” —1 Corinthians 15:1–4
