PASTOR'S CORNER

Provocation is often viewed negatively—associated with conflict, harm, and destruction. Yet God's Word redeems this idea and gives it a higher purpose. Believers in Jesus Christ are called to provoke one another in a godly way—not toward anger, but toward love and good works. As Hebrews 10:24–25 reminds us, this happens when we intentionally encourage one another and remain committed to gathering together. In a world that easily stirs division, may the church be a people who stir up love, strengthen one another, and faithfully draw nearer as the day of Christ approaches.
