PASTOR’S CORNER

Recently, I was invited to record a short video message for the 33rd Anniversary of the church where I began my pastoral ministry in the Philippines as an Assistant Pastor alongside my father. At that time, the church was only three years old. I also learned that they had changed their name from Faith Baptist Church to Emunah Baptist Church. Curious about the change, I searched for the meaning of Emunah. It is the Hebrew word for faith, but it means far more than intellectual belief. It speaks of active trust, steadfastness, and faithfulness to God's promises.

This reminded me of a message I preached here at GAC two years ago: “Let Our Faith Have Feet.” True biblical faith is lived out by standing firm in the faith (1 Corinthians 16:13), walking by faith (2 Corinthians 5:7), and running the race of faith with endurance (Hebrews 12:1–3). May this continue to challenge us to live a faith that is not only professed, but faithfully practiced.
