PASTOR'S CORNER

My deepest and sincerest gratitude to you, GAC Family, for the surprise and special birthday celebration you blessed me with last Sunday, and for your willingness to help Marj and me move to our new, smaller apartment at Sprucewood Apartments, just across our church parking lot, on the very day of my birthday last Monday.

Since we had only a few things to move, I am sorry that I could not accommodate everyone who offered to help. We were able to accept the help of the first three brothers who offered—Brothers Jun Caceres, Oliver Apacway, and Barny Caporal. Nevertheless, I know that many of you were involved through your thoughts, prayers, and readiness to help whenever the need arose.

I am deeply grateful for your love and kindness. Praise the LORD, and to HIM be all the glory! May we always remember that our service to one another for the Lord is never forgotten by Him: “For God is not unjust so as to forget your work and the love which you have shown toward His name, in having ministered and in still ministering to the saints.” — Hebrews 6:10.
