PASTOR'S CORNER

Elections often bring divided opinions, political preferences, and differing choices about whom to support. Sometimes, exchanges of opinions turn into debates and even arguments. Sadly, this happens among believers, too. However, regardless of the election outcome, may we humbly acknowledge God's sovereignty, respect His purposes, and remain united as His people. Rather than allowing political differences to divide us, let us unite in prayer for those elected to serve in public office, asking God to grant them wisdom, guide their leadership for the good of all, and salvation of who are not yet believers in Christ.

"First of all, then, I urge that entreaties and prayers, petitions and thanksgivings, be made on behalf of all men, for kings and all who are in authority, so that we may lead a tranquil and quiet life in all godliness and dignity. This is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Savior, who desires all men to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth." — 1 Timothy 2:1–4 (NASB) — Pastor Abe Bigornia
