PASTOR'S CORNER

Fear often stems from insecurity and can make us vulnerable to discouragement, causing us eventually to give in or give up. Today, fearmongering through social media has become increasingly prevalent, misleading and unsettling many people, including believers. In the midst of such uncertainty, may we always remember our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ and His reassuring words to His disciples when they were overwhelmed with fear:

"Take courage; it is I, do not be afraid." — Mark 6:50 (NASB)

Let us not allow fear to overcome our faith. The disciples' circumstances did not immediately change when Jesus spoke, but their perspective could change because He was with them. Likewise, our circumstances may not always change immediately, but we can always take courage in the presence, promises, and power of our Lord Jesus Christ!

— Pastor Abe Bigornia
